

COMMUNICATION STUDIES 2.0, ASSOCIATE IN ARTS FOR TRANSFER

Communication Studies is, generally speaking, the study of human communication. The Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer 2.0 degree (AA-T in Communication Studies) program assists students in improving their communication skills and is designed to prepare students for a major in Communication Studies. The course of study promotes understanding, analysis, and effective application of theories related to communication in interpersonal, group, public, organizational, multicultural, and/or mediated contexts. The program prepares students to transfer into the CSU system to pursue a baccalaureate degree in Communication Studies or related major. Students must complete the Associate Degree for Transfer requirements to earn the AA-T degree.

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the program, students will be able to:

- Apply communication theory and principles to a variety of interpersonal, small group, and public speaking situations.
- Create and present messages appropriate to audience, purpose, and contexts.
- Accomplish personal communicative goals.
- Apply ethical communication principles and practices.
- Explain the connection between communication and culture.
