FREN 50A - Intermediate French Conversation I (1.5 units)

Letter Grade (LG) or Pass/No Pass (P/NP) • Total hours: 25.5 hours lecture
This course is designed to promote mid-intermediate competency as defined by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL), in the oral use of the French language. Course emphasizes the practical application of the language in everyday life situations, and is designed to increase students' fluency in French by reinforcing previously-learned conversational skills, with attention to grammatical accuracy, vocabulary, and pronunciation. Course content is delivered and discussed in French, and includes comparison and contrast of French and francophone cultures on contemporary and culturally-relevant topics, drawn from written and audiovisual sources (art, cinema, history, philosophy and literature; poetry and prose). Reading and discussions of these topics are designed to improve students' abilities to comprehend cultural, ethnic, regional and sociolinguistic differences. Portions of instruction may be offered online; may also be offered fully online.
