

SOCIAL JUSTICE STUDIES: GENDER STUDIES, ASSOCIATE IN ARTS FOR TRANSFER

An Associate in Arts in Social Justice Studies for Transfer is a unique degree that aligns with varied topic-specific degrees offered at many four-year institutions, providing an interdisciplinary education and preparing students for seamless transfer into Ethnic Studies, Gender Studies, Social Justice Studies, and related majors in the CSU system where they can customize their upper-division courses to earn a baccalaureate degree.

Social Justice Studies is interdisciplinary and interrogates the multiple meanings of diversity and engage students in critically examining the social movements, cultural contributions, historical experiences, and socioeconomic concerns of diverse groups. Social Justice Studies is committed to providing students with critical knowledge and skills to be proactive citizens who can address social issues in their communities, as well as work and live competently in diverse settings.

A degree in Social Justice Studies can be used in social work, education, law, community or social services, cultural arts, legislative advocacy, politics, human rights development, and in local, state, federal and international governmental agencies. A student who graduates with an Associate in Arts in Social Justice Studies for Transfer has diverse career options: educators, social workers, public policy analysts, conflict resolution specialists, human relations workers, non-profit workers, mediators, rights advocates, journalists, lobbyists, human rights organizers, international relief workers, anti-violence advocates, community organizers, or political campaigners. Students must complete the Associate Degree for Transfer requirements to earn the AA-T degree.

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the program, students will be able to:

- Identify, analyze, and apply theories of Social Justice to the history of social activism and social movements.
- Reflect critically and evaluate how social justice is rooted in community-based experiences that develop cultural competency in local and global contexts.
- Define and use key concepts, terminology, and theoretical frameworks central to the interdisciplinary fields of Ethnic Studies or Gender and Women's Studies.
- Articulate symbolic and aesthetic expressions based on ethnicity or gender.
